

Statement of Faith

We are a faith-based school and gospel-centered in our approach to teaching. Our goal is to emulate the example that Jesus set and weave the principles of our faith into the daily learning experience at Quest Academy.

The underpinnings of our faith align with the statements of Nicene Creed – please see below for the full text:

Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, of all that is seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father; God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God; begotten not made, one in being with the Father. Through Him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation, He came down from heaven. By the power of the Holy Spirit He was born of the Virgin Mary and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate. He suffered, died, and was buried. On the third day he rose again in fulfillment of the scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord the Giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son, He is worshipped and glorified. He has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one, holy, catholic, apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

At Quest Academy, we require that at least one parent be in agreement with the statements contained in the Nicene Creed to ensure that a consistent foundation of beliefs is valued and taught at both school and home.

I attest that I agree to the above statements:
